

Human Sciences Encounters in Phnom-Penh: Researchers Profiles:GUILLOU Anne Y

Anne Yvonne Guillou

Anne Yvonne Guillou holds a PhD in anthropology from EHESS (Paris, 2001), and a BA in Khmer studies from INALCO (Paris 1988). She is a tenured researcher of the French National Center for Scientific Research (CNRS), currently working for the Center of Southeast Asian studies (CASE), Paris. She has been doing research on Cambodian people since 1986, firstly in France among refugees and then in Cambodia since 1990. Her current research interest is in social suffering and post-genocide social recovering ; Khmer popular religious system ; Body, sickness, healing practices, medicines and practionners ; and Health and migrations.

Anne Yvonne Guillou' HSHH Presentation.

Some of her publications can be found on line:

<http://case.cnrs.fr/spip/case/Guillou-Anne-Yvonne>