

Human Sciences Encounters in Phnom-Penh: Researchers Profiles: Henri Locard

Henri Locard, is a french historian, involved since 2007 as researcher and consultant for the Association de Défense des Droits de l'Homme au Cambodge (ADHOC) He wrote various books and articles, and he is currently writing a comprehensive report, in the form of questions and answers, covering most aspects of the Democratic Kampuchea regime. It is destined to the civil parties at the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia (ECCC). There is now an English and a Khmer version of this Understanding Democratic Kampuchea