

Human Sciences Encounters in Phnom-Penh

Researcher Profil

Brigitte Bouhours

Brigitte Bouhours is a criminologist and currently a Visiting Research Fellow at the Australian National University. She researched the appropriateness of restorative justice for gendered and sexualised crimes and the legal responses to youth sex offending. She has been involved in the analysis and development of large-scale victimisation surveys in China and South East Asia, including violence against women and crime against business. Her research interests include the comparative analysis of crime and victimization in developing and transitional states.